

Warm Loving Environment Feels Like Home

No place is just like home, but we are as close as you can get. Our residents become a part of our extended family. Our home is clean, inviting and pleasantly decorated with private and semi-private rooms available.

All our residents enjoy the convenience of having a bathroom in close proximity to their bedroom.

(five rooms and four bathrooms)

Reclining couch, a plasma TV, an aquarium and electric fireplace enhance our living room. A beautiful furnished patio with mister system, shade trees, flowers, a nice walking path, a covered bench and swing make the backyard a wonderful place to relax and enjoy the outdoors.

The staff at Adriel Care Home will encourage your to stay active. Activities are customized to meet each resident individual's needs, mental abilities and lifestyle preferences. We provide reading material (large print books, audio books), games daily newspaper puzzle, outside entertainment (Surprise Senior Center, we pay for their membership) music (Musical shows, once a month) arts and crafts. We also help seniors with exercise programs. We regularly walk with the residents. Walks and picnics in the park (The park is approximately 250 feet from our home) we celebrate all birthday and holiday that you and your loved one would like to celebrate (We honor all cultures and religious backgrounds).

Testimonials

"As my daughter and I look back we are so grateful that we had picked this home for my husband and wish to encourage anyone looking for a place that will give the finest care one can imagine to choose Adriel Care Home"

- Alice Kiplinger

"I would personally recommend this group home to any family that is looking both for a placement but for a "home" for their loved one"

- Marilyn Vosburg

"The next best thing to Mom being able to care of Dad, is having Dad live with Ali and Mitch. He is happy, healthy and safe"

- Janet L Sherwood

"John was very special to us and his care and well-being was extremely important. The care provided by Ali and Mitch was everything we could ask for while our uncle lived out his final days, and we would recommend the Adriel Care Home for anyone in need of assisted care living"

- Bob & Aileen Siegel
